

Light and Life Panel

Saturday, Dec. 6
11 am - 12 pm
Meeting Room A

A panel of local authors including Randy Lindsay, Brock Boomer, Janette Rallison and Laura Walker, will discuss and answer questions on how they incorporated inspirational themes into their novels and how those relate to real life events.

Copies of their books can be purchased and autographed afterward.

Randy Lindsay is a native of Arizona. His preoccupation with "what if?" has led him to write speculative fiction. Although "The Gathering" is his first novel, Randy has had short stories published in Penumbra e-zine and several anthologies during 2013.

Brock Boomer grew up on a farm in rural Kentucky. He began writing out of sheer arrogance, but the writing craft quickly humbled him. During the process, he discovered that he enjoyed writing because it is an endeavor that can never quite be mastered. He is the author of "Healing Stone".

Laura L. Walker grew up in southern Arizona. At the end of a busy day of running her kids around to their various practices and events, Laura likes to curl up with a good book or write one of her own. "Pierced by Love" is her first published novel.

Janette Rallison/C.J. Hill writes books because writing is much more fun than cleaning bathrooms. She has written 23 novels, including "Just One Wish", that have sold over 1,000,000 copies. Her novels have been on many reading and state lists, including Arizona's Grand Canyon Reader Award.
